

JONATHAN SAROSIEK
Director of Tennis

Director of Tennis Jonathan Sarosiek manages Wintergreen Resort's award-winning tennis department, implementing a variety of tennis programs, organizing member and guest tournaments, and teaching private and group lessons. Tennis Resorts Online and Tennis magazine have consistently recognized Wintergreen's tennis department and academy among the nation's best.

During his tenure at Wintergreen, Sarosiek has served as assistant director of tennis, director of the Wintergreen Tennis Academy and head professional at the resort's Stoney Creek facility. He has been an integral leader of the teaching staff that has been ranked as high as second in the nation.

"I am fortunate to be surrounded by a wonderful staff at Wintergreen Resort, and it is the entire team here that makes this an award winning facility," Sarosiek said. "We take great pride in providing a first-class level of service for our guests, and continue to aspire to reach new heights in securing our reputation as one of the country's top tennis resorts."

A native of Appleton, Wisc., Sarosiek currently resides in Crozet, Va.

###